Customer Reviews

Luci's generosity in sharing the process of her grieving during the terminal illness and after the death of her husband can be a source of inspiration and encouragement, particularly for Christian people, who have experiences losses of their own. I would recommend it wholeheartedly, and I fervently hope that Zondervan will reprint it....It is definitely needed.

I loved this book from years ago, and wanted a fresh copy to share with someone else. I was a widow once myself, and this is the only "widow" book that really fit with my heart.
