Customer Reviews

With the help of this massive study-guide, the GED Ready tests, the free educator's materials (sample essays, short responses and in-depth scoring) found on the educator section of the GED website, and the free Khan Academy math, I scored no less than a 182 on every part of the GED in only a weeks worth of study and two or years of previous traditional high schooling! I was so impressed with the quality and comprehensiveness of the material, I promptly ordered the KAPLAN ACT and SAT PREMIER guides as well. Though other people's results may vary from mine, this book played a large role in helping me to strive for the highest score I could possibly receive in only a week's time. Using the GED ready test as a pre-test, I managed to score around 20 or so points higher on each section of the real test after taking the time to practice and study. I recommend everyone who determined to pass the GED to utilize every resource at their disposal and carefully manage their time. I think that overall this Kaplan study guide makes a great place to figure out what specific topics you should be focusing your time on in order to boost your score. I honestly enjoyed my time studying with this guide thanks to the clear, concise layout and painless navigation. The book encourages and helps students to design a customized study plan to help student's focus on the areas in need of greater development. It includes a wide multitude of practice problems, detailed explanations, lessons, and more of this same kind of content online for a grand whopping total of A LOT of content! For the price, this couldn't have been much of a better deal for myself either.
